Adventurous, enterprising, bold...

She lives next to the port, near the Reales Atarazanas (Royal Shipyards) and very close to Malvarrosa Beach, with an incomparable backdrop: the Mediterranean Sea.

As an oceanographer, her passion is sailing with her friends and enjoying incredible tales of the sea. Some of her friends might include: Jaime Botín (banker), Manuel Vicent (writer) and José Luis Doreste (yacht racer).

HOW TO GET THERE

FROM THE AIRPORT

If you arrive by plane, you may take a taxi or opt for the airport bus service ("Aerobus"), which will leave you next to the train station. From there you can take bus line 19 and get off at the last stop on Avenida del Puerto. You can also take the underground train, the Metro (green line) and get off at Serrería. From there, transfer to the tram, which you will take to the next station (Grao).

GETTING AROUND THE CITY ON PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Bus lines: Line 19, from Plaza del Ayuntamiento or the RENFE train station. Line 4 from Plaza del Ayuntamiento or the Plaza de la Reina. Lines 1 and 2 from the bus station, getting off at Av. del Puerto.
