

— GRANADA —

A TOWN OF MANY ETHNICITIES AND CULTURES, GRANADA HAS BEEN THE STAGE FOR HISTORIC CHANGES AND TIMES THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN OTHERWISE FORGOTTEN

MUST

SIBARIUS

Market cuisine. Try its fusion of nikkei, Far East, and Peruvian cooking, if you dare. You won't regret it.

ROOM MATE LEO

Its pleasant terrace in the centre of the town is the perfect place to take a rest and admire the beauty of Granada, crowned by the Alhambra.

VILLA ONIRIA

The garden of this lordly villa has been designed for enjoyment. Full of aromatic plants, it leads to an inner patio and a spa where you can spend a relaxing afternoon.

SANTA PAULA PALACE

The central cloister of the old convent of Santa Paula is now a great place to have a cocktail or a glass of wine. Its high cuisine restaurant, El Claustro, in the former convent refectory, is also highly recommended.

HUERTO DE JUAN RANAS

This restaurant, on the Mirador de San Nicolás, brings together the essence of Andalusí cooking and traditional Granada dishes. A perfect combination.

ÁLVARO ARRIAGA

Sophisticated cooking with Basque roots in the Caja Granada Museu, at a height of 60 m, in a unique location.

LA FÁBULA

Enjoying dinner on its terrace against the backdrop of its fountains is wonderful. Its innovative, designer cuisine will leave you open-mouthed. Or rather closed-mouthed.

OMKARA FEELFOOD

Sophisticated, generous, and tremendously original tapas in a traditional setting.

GO

THE ALHAMBRA AND EL GENERALIFE

One of the most visited monuments in the world. The summit of Nazari art. Wouldn't you like to be a Sultan to enjoy its wonderful rooms?

ALBAYCÍN

This old district is a picturesque network of whitewashed streets on a hill, where Baroque churches stand alongside Arabic cisterns. In this district you will find:

MIRADOR SAN NICOLÁS

A viewpoint overlooking the entire Alhambra, where you can watch amazing sunsets. The most beautiful thing in town for many.

GRANADA CATHEDRAL

Built by Queen Isabella, this masterpiece of the Spanish Renaissance houses her and her husband Ferdinand's sepulchre.

EL SACROMONTE

The home of gypsies and Flamenco artists for centuries, with very peculiar dwellings: caves. From its slopes you can see the Alhambra, the Albaycín, and Valparaíso valley.

EL REALEJO

The old Jewish quarter in the Muslim town is a great place to enjoy a beer with typical Granada tapas.

BAÑUELO ARABIC BATHHOUSE

An impressive Arabic bathhouse that displays the refinement of Spanish Arabs one thousand years ago.

PLAZA NUEVA

Despite its name, it's the oldest square in Granada. Several historic buildings stand around it.

EL CORRAL DEL CARBÓN

This old 14th-century Andalusí corn exchange is the best preserved one in the Iberian Peninsula.
