

MADRID

THE CAPITAL, WHERE THE MOST CUTTING-EDGE IDEAS COEXIST WITH TRADITION
MODERNITY AND TRADITION GO HAND IN HAND IN MADRID.

MUST

SALA DE DESPIECE

A restaurant with a large bar that resembles slaughterhouse tables. Those taller than 3 m should be careful, as butcher's knives and hooks hang from the ceiling.

MARKETS: SAN ANTÓN, SAN MIGUEL, SAN ILDEFONSO

Three different markets, one same idea: stalls where you can eat all sorts of things. From sushi to croquettes. 100% market cooking.

BAR LA ARDOSA

Blessed tap vermouth. Home-made, delicious, and sometimes accompanied by Cantabrian Sea anchovies.

KIKEKELLER

Art and social life mingle in this bar/furniture shop which sells unique objects.

ROOM MATE ÓSCAR TERRACE

This terrace in the centre of the city has a swimming pool, a bar, and amazing views of Madrid.

MATADERO MADRID

A former slaughterhouse that now hosts exhibitions and design markets.

LAS SALESAS

The Madrid Soho. Its streets are full of beautiful, unique shops. Be careful: it's highly likely that you will be unable to resist its window displays.

LA LATINA

The liveliest district in Madrid, the place to have an aperitif. Txirimiri's pintxos and Juana la Loca's omelette are to die for.

GO

HAPSBURG MADRID

From Sol to La Latina. This is old Madrid, the capital of an empire that stretched from the Netherlands to the Americas. As you walk, you will find:

PUERTA DEL SOL

The perfect starting point. Kilometre 0. This is the starting point of all Spanish roads. Why not of your walk?

PLAZA MAYOR

Built in the 16th century. Delicious café con leche is served here.

THE ROYAL PALACE

This is the King's official residence, although he doesn't live here now. Understandable, as walking through more than 3,000 rooms to get to the bathroom must be exhausting.

PASEO DEL PRADO, MUSEUM CITY

An urban garden, a beautiful boulevard, and a great concentration of museums.

It includes the Prado Museum, the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum, and the Royal Botanic Garden. The Reina Sofía Museum and the recently renovated Museum of Anthropology are also near. After visiting them, you will know about absolutely everything.

PUERTA DE ALCALÁ

One of the five old royal gates to enter Madrid. Noblemen and kings crossed them. And now so will you.

RETIRO PARK

The Spanish Central Park. Picnics on the grass, boat rides, skating lessons... This beautiful 118-hectare park is the Madrilians' playground.
