

MEXICO CITY

THE BIRTHPLACE AND MAUSOLEUM OF ANCIENT CULTURES, MEXICO CITY IS A CITY OF CONTRASTS. ITS HISTORY, CUISINE, MODERNITY, AND TRADITION TURN IT INTO ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE CITIES IN LATIN AMERICA

MUST

EL PUJOL

The evolution of traditional Mexican food. Its dishes have been called works of art. Understandably.

MAXIMO BISTROT LOCAL

Their philosophy leads them to create a daily menu inspired in the most vibrant ingredients in the market.

RESTAURANTE BIKO

Molecular cuisine, foams, spheres... the mixture of flavours, deconstruction, and refinement are the key elements in this sophisticated restaurant.

RESTAURANTE NICOS

Traditional Mexican cooking, mixing family recipes and high cuisine.

RESTAURANTE BAKÉA

The chef, of French Basque and Mexican origins, brings the best seasonal ingredients to every dish.

QUINTONIL

Modern Mexican cuisine which uses ingredients from small local producers.

GLOTONNERIE

Reinterpreted French cuisine in an amazing house with a terrace. Its cellar has more than 250 wines.

Don't try them all at once!

CLANDESTINA

You cannot come to Mexico and not drink mezcal. At Clandestina they don't beat around the bush. Here there's only mezcal and beer. A classic.

BROOKLYN ROOFTOP

The best Mexican DJs can be found in this bar with one of the most spectacular terraces in the south of the city.

BISTRO 83

A colonial hacienda with a charming atmosphere. A great place to have breakfast.

GO

PLAZA DE LA CONSTITUCIÓN

The heart of the country, both culturally and geographically. The National Palace houses Diego Rivera's mural paintings.

TEMPLO MAYOR

Pieces from the ruins of the ancient city of Tenochtitlan are exhibited in this museum.

NATIONAL ANTHROPOLOGY MUSEUM

One of the most important museums in the world. Here you can see the astounding Aztec calendar and pre-Hispanic pieces.

PLAZA DE GARIBALDI

A place to pay homage to Mariachi music. Arriba, andale.

FRIDA KAHLO MUSEUM

Also known as the Blue House, this was the artist's home and that of her husband, Diego Rivera. Frida's ashes have their resting place in this house, where Trotsky died.

LA ALAMEDA CENTRAL

A park in the historic centre of the city, which is a leisure space for Mexicans.

MONUMENTO DE LA REVOLUCIÓN

A mausoleum commemorating the Mexican revolution.

XOCHIMILCO

Here you can see, in a barge tour, what the metropolis looked like before the Spanish came, when it was a floating city.

PALACIO DE CORREOS

The symbol of the city, this impressive work of eclectic architecture was built in the 20th century to display Mexicans' development and progress.

PALACIO DE BELLAS ARTES

This uniquely beautiful building was built to provide the capital with a space to host artistic events.
