ENDLESS EXPANSES OF WHITE SAND, BATHED IN UNREAL BLUE.

MIAMI, FULL OF LATIN HISTORY AND RHYTHM, IS A TROPICAL PARADISE THAT EVERYONE SHOULD GET TO KNOW

MUST

JOE'S STONE CRAB

This restaurant is famous for its generous portions and its Keylime Pie, a Florida classic.

ZUMA

Its world-famous chef is a specialist in modern Japanese cuisine. You will enjoy a sophisticated cooking philosophy in an informal, fun environment.

MICHYS ´ S

This restaurant will take you to New York. Vintage, stylish, chic. And it has exceptional food. Whatever you order, you'll enjoy it.

ALTAMAR

An Italian bistro specialising in fish. Always fresh. Yum.

SEASONS52

If you want to eat well and not get fat, visit Seasons 52, the restaurant where no dish has more than 475 calories. Tasty and light, always perfect.

THE RIVER OYSTER BAR

This restaurant is located on a corner with great windows overlooking the street. Informal yet elegant, despite its name - they serve more than oysters!

CVI.CHE 105

It started out as a small downtown restaurant serving ceviche and Peruvian food. When the waiting line turned around the corner, they decided to move to larger premises. A fun atmosphere and delicious dishes.

CAFE PASTIS

A little piece of France in Miami. Small, cozy, and delicious. Its wines and home-made puddings are the perfect end to a meal.

NIKKI BEACH

In Saint Tropez, Marrakech, Marbella, Ibiza... the Nikki Beach is one of the most famous clubs in the world. Its beach hammocks are perfect day and night.

MANSION DISCO

One of the largest in the city. Electronic music, house, R&B... Music changes and so does its theme. A different performance every day. Amazing!

GO

OCEAN DRIVE

The most famous and most lively street in Miami. This is a sea drive on South Beach lined by Art Deco buildings. Here are the best restaurants, bars, and hotels in the city.

"LITTLE HABANA"

In the 60s, Cuban refugees settled in "Little Havana". Here you will find salsa rhythms, men playing domino, and the smell of cigars and coffee in the breeze.

KEY BISCAYNE

Fantastic beaches, diving, sailing, tennis, walks, cycling... This island is the perfect setting for healthy leisure.

COCONUT GROVE

One of the oldest districts in Miami, with a busy nightlife. Here you will find Villa Vizcaya and its wonderful Gardens. Don't miss it!

BAYSIDE MARKETPLACE

Bayside is the gateway for the many cruises arriving at Miami. You can go shopping, have dinner, or even board a tourist boat to see the stars' mansions on the islands along the McArthur Causeway.

BISCAYNE NATIONAL PARK

Created to preserve Biscayne Bay, which boasts one of the USA diving sanctuaries. Its islands and coral reefs can be visited on canoes or glass-bottom boats.

EVERGLADES NATIONAL PARK

Swamps and mangroves which you can visit on a hovercraft. The Miccosukee native tribe has a curious casino nearby. During the day, they allow tourists to share their typical meals and dances, and they display their skills against the many crocodiles in the area.
